

VJ Fader

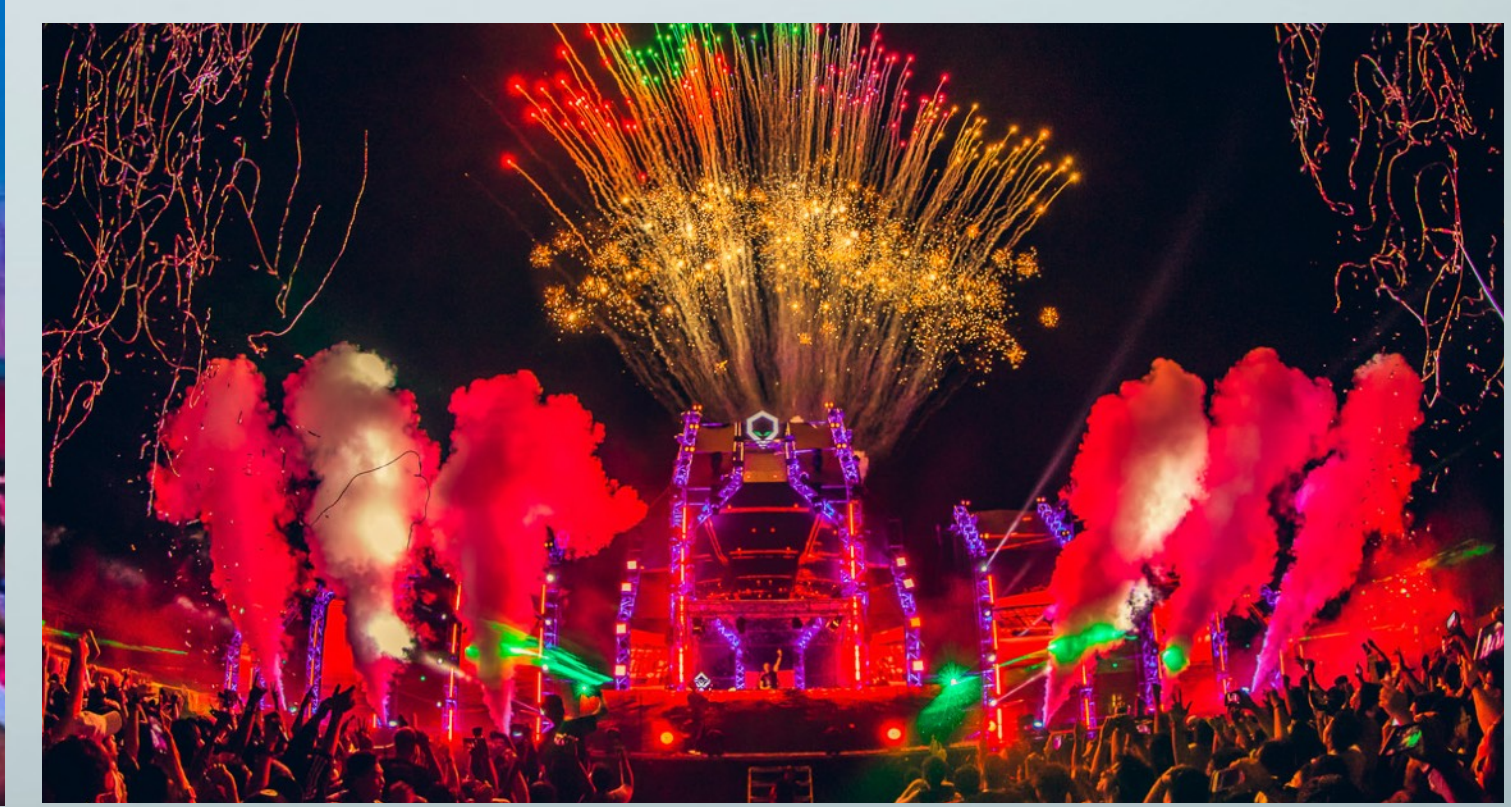

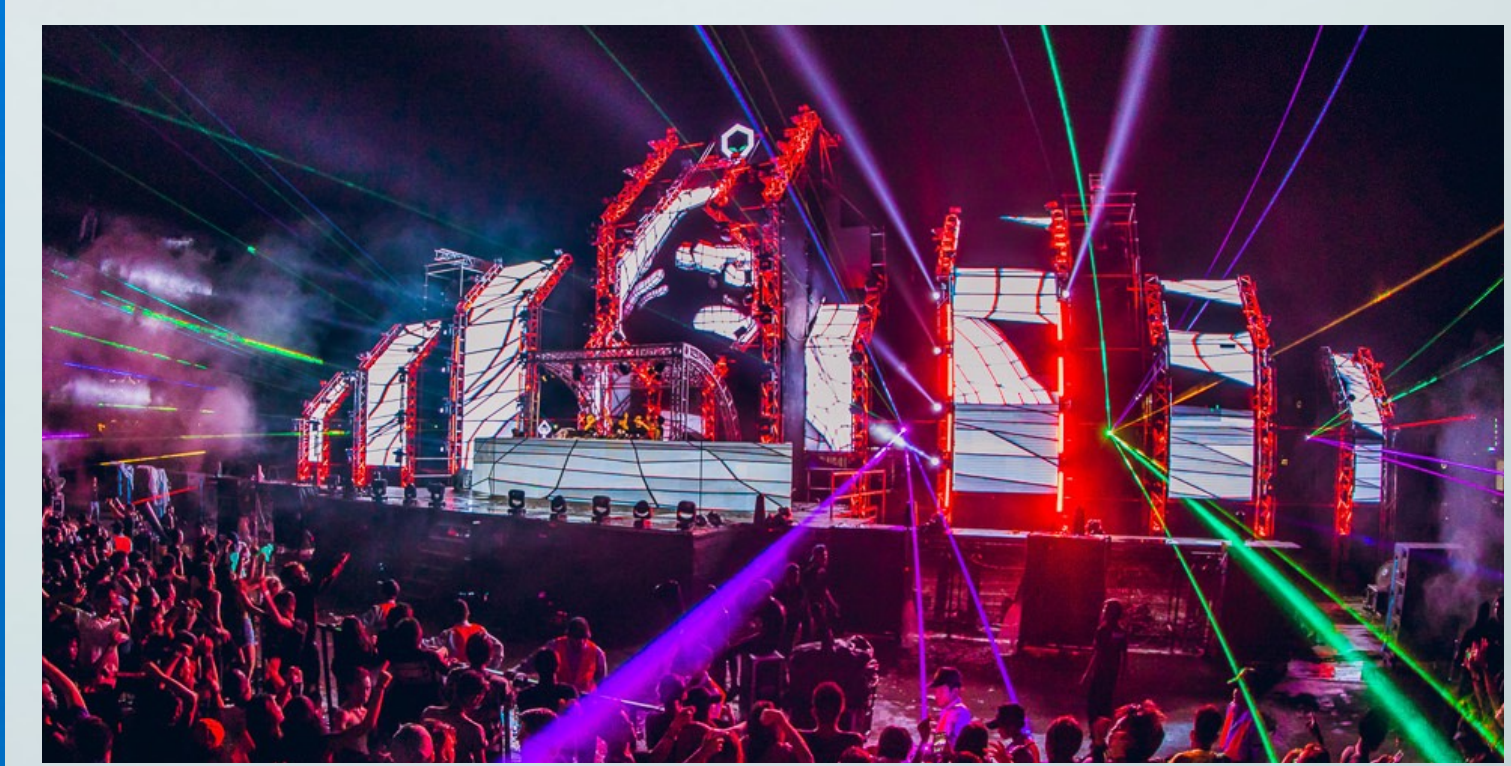

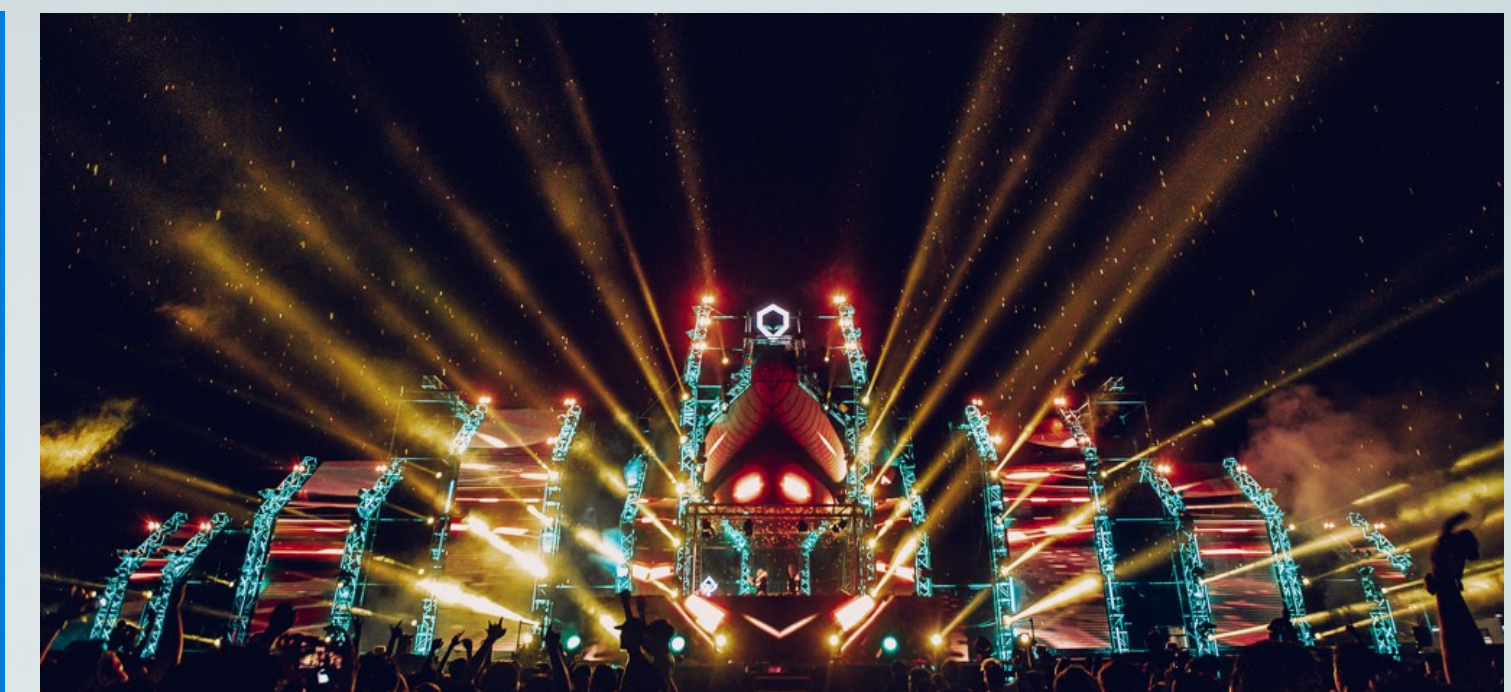

Stage Design Portfolio 2018 v1

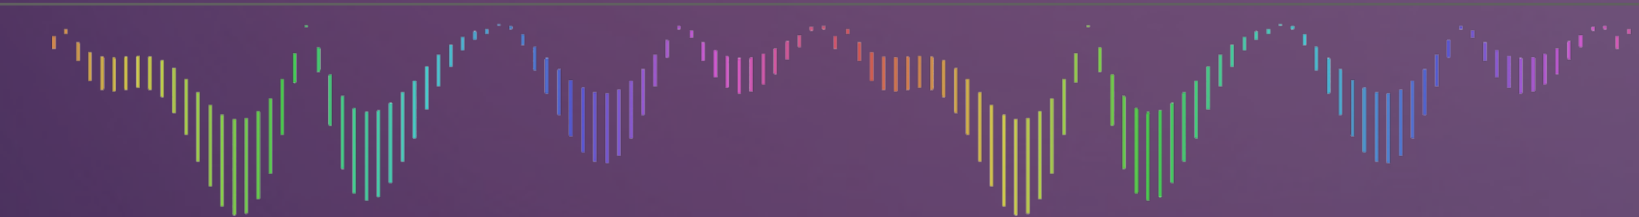

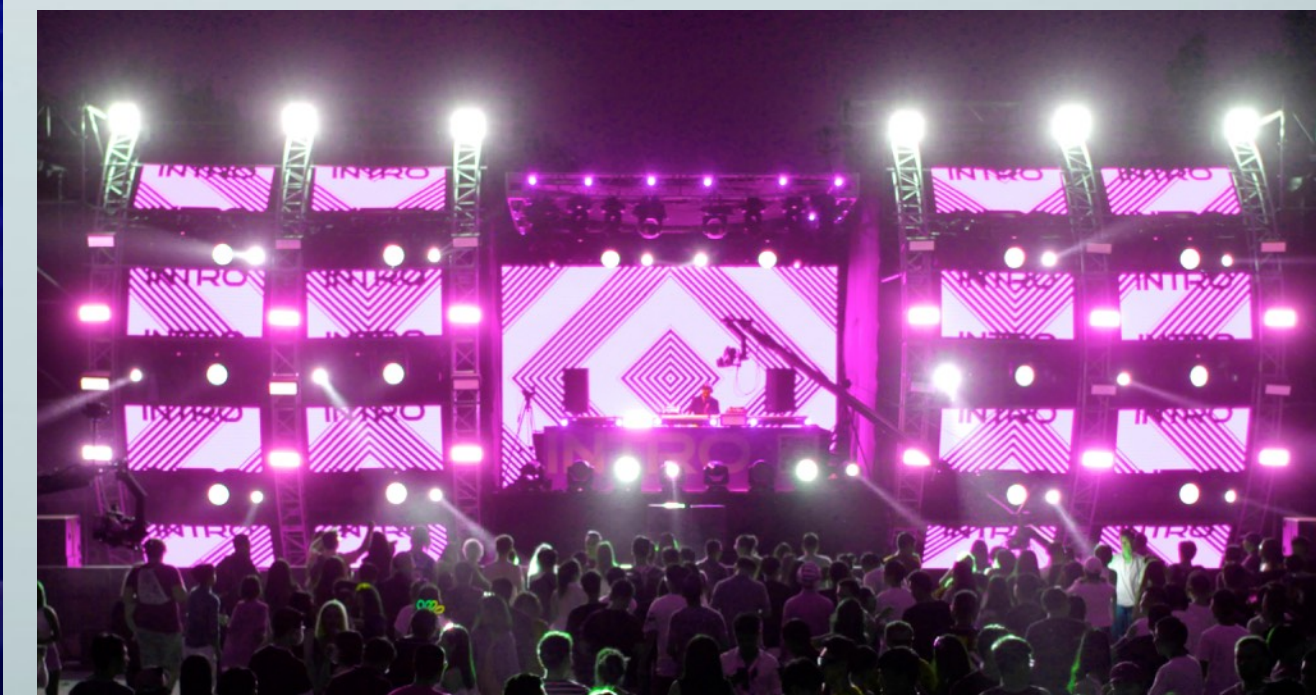

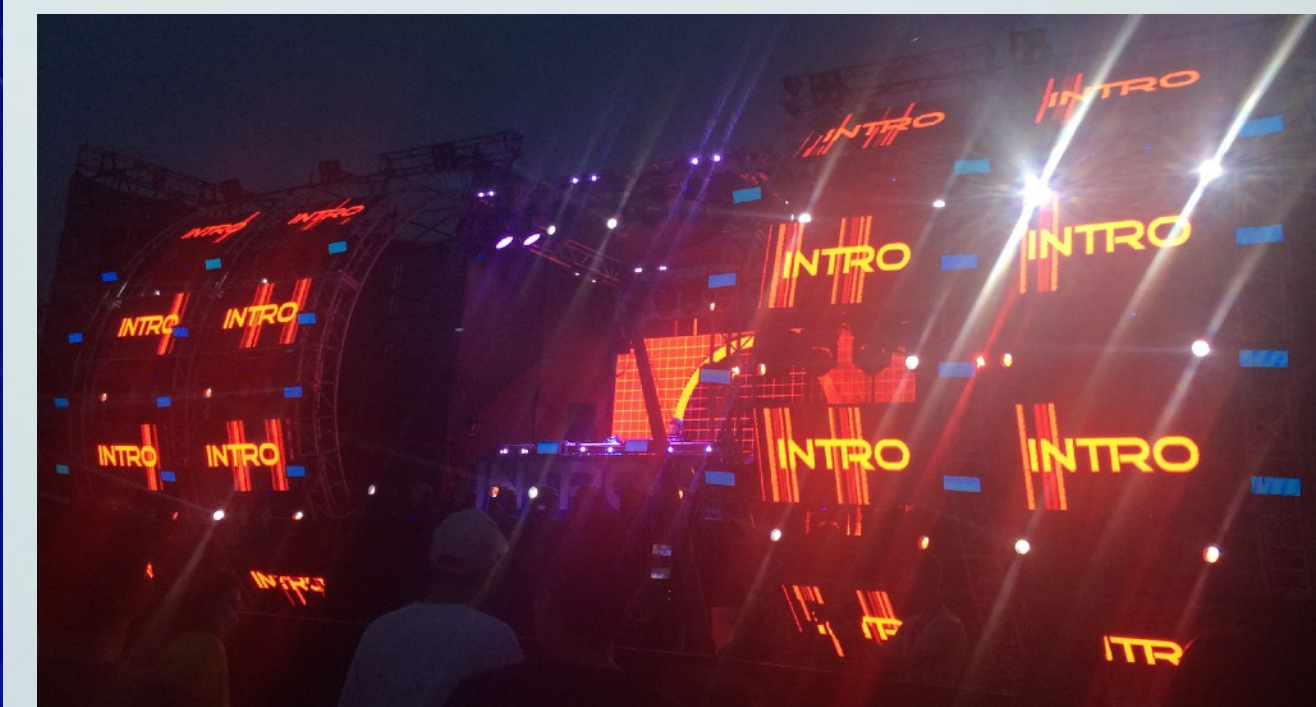

Fader (James Cui) is a visual artist who works with multimedia in a variety of disciplines. From video mapping, generative animation, music videos, stage design to art installations, his work has been shown to broad audiences around the world. He has exhibited at numerous festivals such as Coachella (Indio), Burningman (Black Rock City), Insomniac Events (Los Angeles), Fuji Rock Festival (Japan), Mapping Festival (Geneva) and Backwoods Festival (Oklahoma). He received a degree in Illustration from the Art Center in Pasadena California and went on to teach himself how to write programming code for his audio/video performances. He founded the Neuromixer VJ software company in 2004 which features video software and innovative prototypes like faderTouch. He continues to exhibit internationally, expanding his techniques and finding new applications.

Fader (James Cui)是一位国际视觉艺术家，主攻视频直播及视觉艺术。作为训练有素的插图作者和自学成才的程序员，他设计并略码v软件，加工Max/Jitter,及至开发硬件解决方案，用于触摸式屏幕和Kinect技术。2002年起，他完成了超过100多个社团的VJ活动，并参与全球艺术盛会。如Coachella(美国), Burningman(美国), Mapping Festival(日内瓦) 他的工作还包括音乐视频，艺术装置，舞台设计，视频映射，Media Facade和影院。他现为洛杉矶视频艺术家协会会员兼 Neuromixer VJ软件创作人。
